

DRAFT · NOT FOR RELEASE · OTHER ROUTES PENDING VERIFICATION

A quick guide to the proposed conduct standards. Applicable approved policies, contracts, and client rules govern your work.

The five-question decision test

- 1 Permission: Check the law, contract, policy, client restrictions, and rights to use the material.
- 2 Honesty: Is the record or claim accurate and supportable? Correct mistakes with a visible trail.
- 3 Fairness: Could an interest, relationship, gift, or favor affect a decision or appear to? Disclose and step back for review.
- 4 Authority: Do you have approval to sign, spend, share, or commit? A request from someone senior does not replace it.
- 5 Explainability: Could you explain the decision openly and accurately? If not, pause and ask.

Where to raise a concern or ask

Need	Route
Code-of-conduct breach	Email ReportIt@synozur.com
Security issue	Email security@synozur.com
Usual conduct concern	Your manager or [TO CONFIRM BEFORE RELEASE: designated conduct/ethics contact and approved reporting route]
Usual contact involved or uncomfortable to use	[TO CONFIRM BEFORE RELEASE: designated alternate reporting route independent of the usual contact]
HR support	[TO CONFIRM BEFORE RELEASE: HR contact for workplace conduct and reporting]
Attestation clarification	[TO CONFIRM BEFORE RELEASE: contact for attestation questions]

You can raise a concern in good faith without proof or investigating first. Do not retaliate or destroy records. Internal routes do not limit lawful reporting to government or regulatory authorities.